Guest Speaker

Alison M. Howard

Director
Oklahoma City

Alison Howard is a director in the firm's Oklahoma City office and chair of the Employee Benefits & ERISA practice group. She concentrates her practice on healthcare and employee benefits law and also handles complex civil litigation and appeals. Howard is admitted to practice in Oklahoma, the U.S. District Court for the districts of Oklahoma, and the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals. Howard is listed in the Best Lawyers of America in appellate practice and rated by Super Lawyers as an Oklahoma Rising Star in employee benefits and ERISA law.

Howard is a member of the Oklahoma and American Bar Associations and actively participates in the American Health Lawyers Association and Oklahoma Lawyers for Children. Her publications include "Work Health Benefit Issues in Flux" in The Oklahoman, "Payors, Providers, and the Courts: An Update on State and Federal Litigation" in the American Health Lawyers Association; and "Oklahoma's Collateral Order Doctrine? The Appealability of Pre- Judgment Orders After Hammonds" in the Oklahoma Bar Journal.
