Playskool Chase 'n Go Ball Popper – Pink

Product Description

Get little ones moving and giggling with air-powered, unpredictable fun! With its slim design and ball storage, the Chase 'n Go Ball Popper toy packs whole-body play into a compact size. This active toy for babies and toddlers features multiple ways to play and helps encourage a variety of developmental benefits. Kids can practice their gross motor skills by sitting or standing to place the balls in the toy. Pressing the big button to start the 6 tunes and ball popping can help them explore cause and effect. When it's time to change things up, switch the poppin' fun with an easy turn of the elephant's trunk. When the trunk faces toward the elephant, the balls will continuously cycle through the toy, which can help encourage baby's eye tracking. Turn the trunk away from the elephant to help encourage gross motor skills through race 'n chase fun as the balls launch around the room! Kids can practice making predictions as they figure out where the balls will land next, and the music is sure to keep them moving and grooving again and again! Playskool and all related properties are trademarks of Hasbro.

Features

Toddlers can get active with air-powered, unpredictable fun
Adjustable to cycle balls continuously or launch them around the room
Kids can practice motor skills, eye tracking, and making predictions
They can also explore cause and effect by pressing the button to hear the 6 tunes
Includes 4 colorful, easy-to-grasp balls
Includes Chase 'n Go Ball Popper toy, 4 balls and instructions
Ages over 9 months
4 D batteries required; Not included

Imaginarium Wooden Block Set - 150 Piece

Product Description

The Imaginarium 150-Piece Wooden Block Set includes 74 natural and 76 colored blocks

Extend your child's science content knowledge and math skills with these engaging STEM Learning Tips.

1. Ask your child to stack and count mid-sized blocks of the same size and shape until the tower tips over. Then, do the same with all smaller and then all larger-sized blocks. Which tower was the tallest before it tipped over? Guide your child to see that the height of a tower of blocks and the width of the base affects its stability. Ask your child to notice the direction in which the blocks fall (downward) and understand that the blocks fall downward because of a force (a push or a pull) called gravity.
2. Identifying shapes is a math concept that children learn in their early years. Help your child recognize, name, and sort the shapes of the blocks. Then, go around the house to find objects that are the same shapes.

The secure harness keeps baby snuggled into place as she enjoys 20 minutes of continuous melodies and nature sounds. With volume control, six variable speeds, and timer settings of 30, 45 or 60 minutes, parents can fine-tune settings as their little girl grows. To help keep baby engaged as she swings, three plush toys dangle from a mobile that pivots away for quick access to baby. Includes an AC adapter to extend battery life and WhisperQuiet™ operation so baby can swing undisturbed. Machine-washable seat pad and head support.

Features

Seat rotates 180 degrees for 3 swing directions.

Truespeed™ technology maintains 6 speeds as baby grows.

Mobile with 3 plush toys easily pivots out of the way.

20 minutes of melodies and nature sounds with volume control and auto shut-off.
AC adaptor saves money on batteries.

Imaginarium Wooden Block Set - 150 Piece

Product Description

The Imaginarium 150-Piece Wooden Block Set includes 74 natural and 76 colored blocks

Extend your child's science content knowledge and math skills with these engaging STEM Learning Tips.

1. Ask your child to stack and count mid-sized blocks of the same size and shape until the tower tips over. Then, do the same with all smaller and then all larger-sized blocks. Which tower was the tallest before it tipped over? Guide your child to see that the height of a tower of blocks and the width of the base affects its stability. Ask your child to notice the direction in which the blocks fall (downward) and understand that the blocks fall downward because of a force (a push or a pull) called gravity.
2. Identifying shapes is a math concept that children learn in their early years. Help your child recognize, name, and sort the shapes of the blocks. Then, go around the house to find objects that are the same shapes.

Chicco Bravo LE Stroller

Product Description

The Chicco Bravo LE Stroller is a new, premium stroller platform with a one-hand quick fold and 3 modes of use. The Bravo LE is designed exclusively for use with the #1 rated Chicco KeyFit 30 Infant Car Seat. The Bravo LE provides three unique modes of use to adapt to your changing travel needs as baby grows. In its first mode for use with infants, the Bravo LE seat & canopy can be removed easily revealing a lightweight car seat carrier - most helpful when baby is always in the KeyFit. During the transition time when baby still rides in the KeyFit but may also like to sit up & see, the Bravo LE functions as a travel system. When baby outgrows the KeyFit, the Bravo LE is a full featured toddler stroller perfect for everyday travel.

The Bravo LE stroller comes loaded with premium features to make strolling comfortable for baby & convenient for you! A removable, reversible seat insert, child's tray with cup holders, and a premium parent tray with zip enclosure, are just a few of the details that take this stroller to the next level. Additionally, a flip out canopy visor, upgraded fabrics package, and a sleek black frame give the Bravo LE the ultimate in style.

Simply lift the handle under the seat and the front wheels swivel into position allowing a self-standing compact fold. The multi-position, reclining seat, and all-wheel suspension help to create just the right ride. The large storage basket is easily accessible, and a height-adjustable handle easily accommodates both Mom and Dad. Other features include an extendable canopy with window, and linked brakes.

Usage: from 6 months to 50 lbs.

Features

The Chicco Bravo Stroller can be used in 3 different modes - lightweight infant carrier, travel system and full feature toddler stroller.

Stroller features removable seat for easy transformation into a stylish frame carrier compatible with the Chicco KeyFit 30 Infant Car Seat, sold separately.

Stroller features one-hand fold, auto-positioning wheels and a self-standing compact folded position
Includes both a premium parent tray and child tray with storage and cup holders
Includes a reversible, removable seat insert and a premium fabrics package

Jane Nanuq Lightweight Stroller

Product Description

With only one glance at the Jane Nanuq Lightweight Stroller you will immediately be struck by its uniqueness. Sure the Nanuq has all the standard bells and whistles that come along with a lightweight umbrella style stroller, but it has also been built to stand out amongst other lightweight strollers.

The frame of the stroller is bold and shiny and screams of strength and durability, made from anodized aluminum it is durable and corrosion resistant. The roomy, tall seat allows older children to sprawl out for an afternoon ride around town. If a nap is what suits your little ones fancy than you can select one of the five recline positions including a nearly flat recline perfect for some afternoon Z's.

With the Nanuq you no longer have to fumble around with a stern foot brake but instead can enjoy a smooth release or set of the handbrake. The telescopic handlebars are almost unheard of amongst umbrella strollers and allows for all parents to easily maneuver the Nanuq. The fabric is a plush polyester/cotton mix that comes with bold, fun little patterns you won't see elsewhere in the world of strollers.

With the purchase of a Nanuq you will receive a cup holder and rain cover, necessities you don't realize you need until it is too late. The wheels on the Nanuq are much larger than other leading umbrella strollers allowing you to transition to all types of terrain with ease. The patented fold on the Nanuq is something to see, so compact that it compresses down to 3 inches smaller than the smallest stroller in its class. If you are on the go the Nanuq features a handle for easy lifting and when you are at home, a kickstand for upright and tidy storage.

With all of the bells and whistles, your Nanuq Lightweight Stroller will stand out as the belle of the ball!

Product Description

The Combi Fold N Go Double Stroller provides ultimate convenience while encompassing a lightweight, compact, and portable design. The self-standing stroller fits through a standard doorway and features a one-hand quick fold and sleek aluminum frame. Two padded seats include 5-point harness systems with plush harness pads for your children's comfort. The extra-large canopies with mesh ventilation windows enable you to keep an eye on your children at all times and also allows air to flow easily in and out of the seating area of the stroller. Dual front wheel suspension ensures a smooth ride while the lockable front swivel wheels improve maneuverability. One single step locks both rear wheels simultaneously, making it easy to park and stroll as you wish. A parent cup holder, extra-large basket, and canopy pockets offer storage of essential items right at your fingertips. With a weight capacity of 50 pounds per seat, two removable child cup holders, one removable snack holder, and a multi-position recline, the Fold N Go Double Stroller is suitable for children 6 months and older.

Joovy Big Caboose Graphite Stand-On Tandem Triple Stroller

Product Description

The Joovy Big Caboose Graphite Stand-On Tandem Triple Stroller makes it possible to stroll with three young children. The Big Caboose Graphite includes two full-size seats with ample legroom, removable canopies, two child trays and two universal car seat adapters. Both front seats have a 2-position recline and an adjustable footrest. The rear bench seat and standing platform empowers the older child to sit, stand or walk alongside the stroller. A new larger rear canopy provides coverage for the older child when sitting on the rear bench seat. If all three children are close in age or you have triplets, the optional Joovy Caboose Rear Seat accessory can be purchased to convert the stroller's rear bench seat into a full-size reclining seat. It installs easily over the existing rear bench seat to give you three full-size reclining seats with 5-point harnesses. The Big Caboose Graphite can carry up to 125 pounds so it takes a bit of strength to push and maneuver the stroller when fully loaded. It features sealed-bearings in all the wheels to make pushing and steering the easiest it can be and a linked parking break. All-wheel suspension provides a smooth ride for passengers and the stroller's narrow width makes it easy to go through doorways, hallways and store aisles. When folded, the Big Caboose Graphite measures 14 height x 21.5 width x 63 length inches long (or 54 inches long without the front canopy and tray) so you need a large vehicle to transport this stroller. However, it is remarkably lightweight at only 32.3 pounds.

Features

Two front seats accommodate children 6 months and up and upto 40 pounds, or from birth and up with car seat adapters (included)

Rear bench seat and standing platform accommodates a child from 2.5 years and up and up to 45 pounds

Great for twins, twins + toddler, triplets, or three young children, max weight 125 pounds

Front seats with two-position recline, adjustable footrests, two child trays and two car seat adapters

Linked parking brake and large storage basket, stroller weighs 32.3 pounds
