FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

37th OESC Semi-annual Spring Job Fair Set for May 1 in Oklahoma City

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK (April 27, 2015) – The Oklahoma Employment Security Commission (OESC) invites the public to attend its 37th Semi-annual Spring Job Fair from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. on Friday, May 1, 2015, at the Chevy Bricktown Event Center, 425 East California Avenue in Oklahoma City. The event, one of central Oklahoma's premier job fairs, will welcome nearly 100 employers representing hundreds of employment opportunities in a wide variety of industries. Approximately 900 job seekers attended the OESC job fair held this past fall.

The 37th OESC Semi-annual Spring Job Fair is open to the public. Job seekers are asked to dress professionally, bring copies of their resumes and be prepared to meet face-to-face with company recruiters. Computers with online access are provided so attendees can submit electronic applications and receive resume assistance. Parking for the event is free.

For more information about the 37th OESC Semi-annual Spring Job Fair, please contact the Oklahoma City Eastside Workforce Center at (405) 713-1890 or the Oklahoma City Brookwood South Workforce Center at (405) 234-5000.

About OESC – The Oklahoma Employment Security Commission is Oklahoma's state workforce agency. OESC provides unemployment compensation to support unemployed workers and their communities; matches jobs and workers to benefit local labor markets; prepares a skilled workforce to meet employers' needs; and gathers, analyzes and disseminates information about the labor force to improve local economic decisions.
