38th OESC Semi-annual Spring Job Fair Set for October 9th in Oklahoma City

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK – The Oklahoma Employment Security Commission (OESC) invites the public to attend its 38th Semi-Annual Fall Job Fair from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. on Friday, October 9, 2015, at the Chevy Bricktown Event Center, 425 East California Avenue in Oklahoma City. The event, one of central Oklahoma's premier job fairs, will welcome nearly 100 employers representing hundreds of employment opportunities in a wide variety of industries. Approximately 1100 job seekers attended the OESC job fair held this past spring.

The 38th OESC Semi-Annual Fall Job Fair is open to the public. Job seekers are asked to dress professionally, bring copies of their resumes and be prepared to meet face-to-face with company recruiters. Computers with online access are provided so attendees can submit electronic applications and receive resume assistance. Parking for the event is free.

For more information about the 38th OESC Semi-Annual Fall Job Fair, please contact the Oklahoma City Eastside Oklahoma Works Center at (405) 713-1890 or the Oklahoma City Brookwood South Oklahoma Works Center at (405) 234-5000.

About OESC – The Oklahoma Employment Security Commission is Oklahoma's state workforce agency. OESC provides unemployment compensation to support unemployed workers and their communities; matches jobs and workers to benefit local labor markets; prepares a skilled workforce to meet employers' needs; and gathers, analyzes and disseminates information about the labor force to improve local economic decisions.
