

Danny Hancock – Construction Manager

Danny has been part of the Commercial Mechanical Industry for over 20-years and has a total of 22 years in the plumbing and mechanical construction industry and is now working with Cowen Construction as a Construction Manager. Since receiving his Applied Science at Oklahoma State University-Okmulgee in Construction Technology back in 1993, he has continued to attend training on various programs including staying very active with code progression. He carries a contractor's license in Oklahoma and Arkansas with construction Project Management experience in medical facilities, institutional work, historical renovation, LEED construction and industrial projects. He has served as an advisor for Tulsa Technology and OSU-IT programs and has served as President for the Plumbing Contractors Association. Danny is currently on his 6th year as an AGC (Associated General Contractors) board member, currently serving as Vice President for the 2014 year.